The theatre was densely crowded, and everybody seemed delighted with the scene before them. During the third act and while there was a temporary pause for one of the actors to enter, a sharp report of a pistol was heard, which merely attracted attention, but suggested nothing serious until a man rushed to the front of the President's box, waving a long dagger in his right hand, exclaiming, 'Sic semper tyrannis,' and immediately leaped from the box, which was in the second tier, to the stage beneath, and ran across to the opposite side, made his escape amid the bewilderment of the audience from the rear of the theatre, and mounted a horse and fled.

The groans of Mrs. Lincoln first disclosed the fact that the President had been shot, when all present rose to their feet rushing towards the stage, many exclaiming, 'Hang him, hang him!' The excitement was of the wildest possible description...

There was a rush towards the President's box, when cries were heard -

Perplexity erzählt mir was.

The screenshot shows a user interface for the Perplexity AI system. On the left, there is a sidebar with icons for Home (+), Ask (magnifying glass), and Discover (person). The main area has a header: "Sind die Informationen aus diesem Dossier über Clemens Meyer korrekt? #####...". Below it are two buttons: "Antwort" (Answer) and "Bilder" (Images). The text content lists three facts as correct: "Erzählband: „Die Nacht, die Lichter“ (2008), Preis der Leipziger Buchmesse – korrekt.", "Roman „Im Stein“ (2013): Shortlist Deutscher Buchpreis – korrekt.", and "Übersetzungen: Seine Bücher sind in viele Sprachen übersetzt – korrekt.". A red circle highlights the section "Zum aktuellen Buch: „Die Projektoren“ (2023)". Underneath, it states: "FALSCH: „Die Projektoren“ ist nicht von Clemens Meyer. Dieses Buch existiert zwar (erschienen 2023 im Suhrkamp Verlag), aber der Autor ist Thomas Hettche, nicht Clemens Meyer.".

Meine Einschätzung basiert auf folgenden, öffentlich zugänglichen und verlässlichen Quellen:

1. Verlagsseiten und Buchdatenbanken

- Der S. Fischer Verlag listet Clemens Meyer als Autor von „Stäube“ (2023), nicht von „Die Projektoren“.
- Der Suhrkamp Verlag führt „Die Projektoren“ (2023) von Thomas Hettche, nicht von Clemens Meyer.
- Siehe z.B. S. Fischer Verlag – Clemens Meyer und Suhrkamp Verlag – Thomas Hettche.
